Karen Bayless, President
NMFRW Fall Board Meeting Report

FCFRW hosted a booth at the San Juan County Fair and won 2nd place 'Celebrating 250 Years of Red White & Blue'. A lot of voter registration information and voting information was handed out to the crowds over five days as well as information on how to join FRW. Pens with 'Four Corners Federated Republican Women' were handed out to visitors to the booth also.

August's speakers were US Senate candidate Larry Marker and Lt. Gov. candidate David Gallego was represented by Mike Trujillo.

September's speakers were Ramona Goolsby, candidate for NM Secretary of State, Michael Perry, candidate for NM Commissioner of Public Lands, and Heather Ellison, NM State Rep. Dist. 4.

On September 12th, FCFRW hosted a 'Meet & Greet' at Gateway Museum in Farmington. All Republican candidates were invited. The event was advertised on KENN (conservative talk radio station), KWYK (contemporary radio station) and KNDN (all Navajo all the time radio station). The public was invited to attend 'regardless of party affiliation', enjoy free snacks and drawings, and to bring their neighbors to ask the candidates their most pressing questions.

October's speakers were Martin Zamora, candidate for US Congress CD 3, District Judge Brian Decker, and San Juan County Commissioner Danielle Todacheene. At this meeting, members brough hygiene items, shower flip flops and towels to help with the Veteran Stand Down.
