

Los Alamos Federated Republican Women
Summer Meeting Report – June 19, 2026

Award Winning Club with 4 silver elephants and 2 Diamond Awards, and the Mamie Eisenhower Library Project Award.

New Mexico Federated Republican Women Activities:

LAFRW EC Committee met monthly to plan events, programs and activities.

Sold many raffle tickets for the NMFRW Red White and Blue Jacket fundraiser.

Events/ Programs

February 12, 2026 – Valentine Party at Flor E Sale Restaurant. Terra Fullbright Region A Chair was our speaker who spoke on "The History of NMFRW".

March 28, 2026 – Joint Meeting with RPLA. Speaker Mark Zamora, Candidate running for US Congressional District 3. Our two local candidates also had the opportunity to speak Eric Stromberg and Jason Chappel both running for open Los Alamos City Council on the Republican ticket.

April 26, 2026 – Freedom Tea at the Historic Fuller Lodge celebrating the 250th Birthday of America. Guest Speaker Ramona Goolsby, Candidate for NM Secretary of State. We recognized 6 student US Constitution Essay Contest winners – 2 in elementary school, 2 in middle school and 2 in high school giving out $1050 as scholarships. We also held a silent auction as a fundraiser and served scones, quiche, finger sandwiches and desserts and of course tea. We had over 80 people attend. It was a grand success. Photos posted on NFRW website and local newspaper.

May 21, 2026 – National Law Enforcement Month. We recognized our local Los Alamos Police Department with red wagons filled with many tasty snacks for the officers. The Chief of Police gladly met us in front of the police department and gladly took all our snacks. This is the seventh year that LAFRW has completed this special service project. Photo posted on NFRW website and local newspaper.

June 18, 2026, Joint Meeting with RPLA. Speaker Greg Hull, Candidate for NM Governor and Didi Okpareke. Our two local candidates also had the opportunity to speak Eric Stromberg and Jason Chappel both running for open Los Alamos City Council on the Republican ticket. LAFRW is also running the silent auction as a fundraiser for RPLA.

Public Relations, Media and Social Media Visibility

Memorial Day Weekend - Labor Day weekend – Planned to continue Friday night concerts at the Pond, Republican Party table during Rodeo Festival and Trick or Treat on Main Street – literature and answer questions.

Regular emails to our membership.

LAFRW Facebook Page up to date with current events,

LAFRW page on the Republican Party of Los Alamos website.

LAFRW page up to date with current activates on the NFRW website.

Plans in place to once again participate in the Mamie Eisenhower Library Project and give books to our local library.

Support the Los Alamos Republican Party

Continued to participate in Work parties for Candidates from September - November included Ward events, training candidates, Door Knocking, turn out the vote calls and texting, poll watchers, poll challengers and members of the Central Committee Meeting. Our President is a member of the Executive Board and keeps our members informed of Republican Party activities. LAFRW donated to local candidates for their campaigns earlier in their campaigns.

Service

We adopted 2 in need local families during the holidays and provide them with gifts. This service project has been ongoing for many years.

Socials

Annual Christmas Party to be held in December 2026.

Support Youth

We have also planned to give our Young Republican Women award each year to an eligible senior in high school.

Respectfully submitted by

Linda Bullock

Los Alamos Federated Republican Women President